Our website uses cookies to distinguish you from other users of our website.

This helps us to endeavour to provide you with a good experience when you browse our website and it allows us to improve our site.

A cookie is a small file of letters and numbers that we store on your browser or the hard drive of your computer if you agree. Cookies contain information that is transferred to your computer’s hard drive.

We use the following cookies:

- Strictly necessary cookies. Necessary cookies help make a website usable by enabling basic functions like page navigation and access to secure areas of the website. The website cannot function properly without these cookies.
- Preferences. Preference cookies enable a website to remember information that changes the way the website behaves or looks, like your preferred language or the region that you are in.
  - We do not use cookies of this type
- Statistics. Statistic cookies help website owners to understand how visitors interact with websites by collecting and reporting information anonymously.
  - Google Analytics
- Marketing. Marketing cookies are used to track visitors across websites. The intention is to display ads that are relevant and engaging for the individual user and thereby more valuable for publishers and third party advertisers.
  - Hubspot

We will share the information collected by the cookies with Atrato Partners Limited.

You can block cookies by activating the setting on your browser that allows you to refuse the setting of all or some cookies. However, if you use your browser settings to block all cookies (including essential cookies), please be aware that you may not be able to access all or parts of our website.

This Cookie Policy shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law and you agree to submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the English Courts.
